Unisource Stretch Wrapper

Everything you want in a Stretch Wrapper

We just unwrapped our Unisource brand Stretch Wrapper at the 2008 EastPack show in New York City. Response was a huge hit! That's what we thought would happen when we designed our stretch wrapper by listening to our customers and stretch film experts. What they thought a Stretch Wrapper should do, this one does!

How would you like to test drive it for two years?

For Free!

Made in the USA

Up to 40 loads per hour
Up to 4000 lbs.

We're so confident you will discover more productivity, efficiency and performance in our Stretch Wrapper that we are willing to make this deal:

THE DEAL: If you purchase a minimum of two pallets of stretch film a month from Unisource, you can use our high performance Stretch Wrapper for two years for absolutely free. To put it another way, use the best Stretch Wrapper in the industry for 24 months, get the best total value in stretch film for 24 months, and you only pay for the film.

What do you have to lose? Uh... nothing!

SMALL TYPE DETAILS: Unisource will provide quarterly preventative maintenance. Any further service requirements are the responsibility of the customer. At the conclusion of the two year period, you may purchase the Stretch Wrapper or we will take it back — no questions asked. Qualify for special offer by purchasing minimum of two pallets of stretch film from Unisource every month.

Use This State of the Art Wrapper Totally Free for 2 Years

Just ask!

What you get:

DUAL SPEED ROLL CARRIAGE: Faster speed up for stabilizing irregular profile loads; slower down speed for securing load

SELF DIAGNOSTICS: Built-in troubleshooting self diagnostics

POWDER COATED PAINT: Why should your stretch wrapper look used up after a year of usage? Plus powder coated paint helps eliminate ozone depleting VOCs

MARKET LEADING PLC: Reliability and nationwide accessibility are just two good reasons we use Allen Bradley PLCs

SHHH... QUIET: Don't add to the din of your operation. No clanging chains or noisy casters here.
